

Vana Events Photography policy: rules of conduct

Behaviour

1. Making photos of others is permitted, provided that the photographer will be of good morals and respectful to other visitors. When the portrayed indicates he or she doesn't appreciate photography, shooting should be discontinued.
2. It is not allowed for photographers to block passageways or paths longer than 30 seconds while shooting. In case shooting takes longer, the photographer needs to look for other places to continue shooting.
3. The photo pass is numbered and provided with name and photo of the photographer. Photographers should always carry the photo pass with them and show this upon request of our staff or visitors.
4. Instructions by Vana Events BV staff should be followed at all times.

Terrain and Access

1. Vana Events cannot be held responsible for any loss or damage to equipment as a direct or indirect consequence of act or omission by other visitors, exhibitors, volunteers or the site manager.
2. Show respect and take care of the on site buildings, flora and fauna. This means it is not allowed to take pictures off the paths or lawns and cannot damage any attributes in the park.
3. The photo pass can only be picked up by the person who applied for it and is not transferable to another person.
4. The photo pass is only valid for the event in the year which is indicated on the pass.

Image and audio recordings

1. Vana Events is entitled at all times to use material for their own promotional purposes, in accordance with the creator.
2. Publication of recordings by Vana Events do not entitle to any kind of reward.
3. Image- and audio recordings that have been made of and/or at Vana Events events are solely for non-commercial purposes. For commercial use of material, Vana Events must be consulted and written approval is required in advance. This also applies for selling of such material.

In case of a situation not described by these rules of conduct, the organization will have final say.

Consequences

In case of failure to comply with these rules of conduct, Vana Events reserved the right to take back the photo pass, whereby the right to photograph expires. In this case, any equipment needs to be removed from the festival grounds.
